

July 19, 2018

Polanyi Society Annual Meeting
Schedule of Sessions
Denver, 2018

The final version of this schedule will not be available until late in the summer of 2018. Locations for meetings are not be assigned until that time. The next posted schedule (polanysisociety.org) should confirm times of meetings and locations. The November 14 meeting is an auxiliary meeting for graduate students in Boulder; anyone can attend but this session will not be organized with papers and open discussion as will be the November 15 and 16 sessions.

Wednesday, November 14

Seminar on “Polanyi on Truth and Rhetoric” at the Center for Western Civilization on the campus of the University of Colorado, Boulder, tentatively set for 3:00-6:00 pm.

Thursday, November 15

4:00-4:50 Charlie Butler, Oak Hill Theological College, “Polanyian Hermeneutics? Meaning in Dialogue with Paul Ricoeur”

4:50-5:40 Margaret McKerron, University of St Andrews, “The Belief of Friends: Polanyi and the Hermeneutical Implications of Friendship Relationships”

5:40-6:30 Martin Turkis, San Francisco, “Post-critical, Post-liberal”

Friday, November 16

10:00-11:00 David Rutledge, Furman University, “‘History’ and Michael Polanyi”

11:00-12:00 Walter Gulick, Montana State University Billings, “Understanding, not Knowing, as the Proper Focus of Epistemology”

1:30-3:30 Board Meeting

4:00-5:00 David Nikkel, University of North Carolina at Pembroke, “Tradition as Body”

5:00-6:00 Jon Fennell, Hillsdale College, “A Polanyian Rescue of C.S. Lewis’s The Abolition of Man”

A brief Business Meeting will be held beginning shortly before 6:00