

2019 Polanyi Society Annual Meeting
Schedule of Sessions
San Diego, Friday, November 22

As will be evident below, all papers to be presented plus the board meeting of the Polanyi Society will be held in San Diego in space provided through the American Academy of Religion on Friday, November 22. In early November, links to the papers will be provided on the Society web site, polanysisociety.org.

9:00-10:30, Hilton Bayfront Sapphire 400B (Fourth Level)
Theme: Polanyian Investigations

Walter Gulick, Montana State University Billings, presiding

Martin Turkis, University of Navarro
“Searching for Teleological Origins: Correlating the Material and the Immaterial”

Tim Simpson, Morehead State University and Jon Fennell, Hillsdale College
“A Polanyian Rationale for the Liberal Arts Core Curriculum”

10:30-12:00, Hilton Bayfront Sapphire, 400B (Fourth Level)

Polanyi Society Board of Directors

4:00-6:00. Marriott Marquis-Vista (South Tower, First Level)
Theme: Polanyi’s Imaginaries (See chapter 7 and 8 in Charles Lowney II, Charles Taylor, Michael Polanyi and the Critique of Modernity [Palgrave, 2017], for background discussion)

Phil Mullins, Missouri Western State University, presiding

Jean Bocharova, Mt. San Jacinto College
“Enchanting or Bewitching: The Role of Rhetoric in the Formation of an Imaginary”

Andrew Grosso, Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Columbia, SC
“‘Visionary Art’ and the Rehabilitation of Modern Imaginaries”

Richard W. Moodey, Gannon University
“Polanyi’s Imaginaries and Pictures”

Brief responses: Charles Lowney, Hollins University and Jon Fennell, Hillsdale College (authors of the chapters cited above)