

SUBMISSIONS FOR PUBLICATION

Articles, meeting notices, and notes likely to be of interest to persons interested in the thought of Michael Polanyi are welcomed. Manuscripts normally will be sent out for blind review.

Articles should be sent to Paul Lewis at lewis\_pa@mercuer.edu.

Book reviews should be sent to Walter Gulick at wgulick@msubillings.edu.

All manuscripts should be submitted as a Microsoft Word file attached to an email message (.doc or .docx) and formatted as follows:

- double-spaced
- with 1" margins
- in a reasonable typeface (Times New Roman 12 is preferred)
- with paragraphs indented 0.25"

As to other matters of style:

1. Spelling: We recognize that the journal serves English-speaking writers around the world and so do not require anyone's "standard" English spelling. We do, however, require all writers to be consistent in whatever convention they follow.

2. Citations: We recognize that Polanyi's work connects with scholars who work in diverse disciplines and typically use different style guides such that we are "fluent" in different conventions for citations, capitalization of titles, and so forth.

- Our preference is for Chicago's parenthetical/reference style in which citations are given in the text as (last name of author year, page number), combined with bibliographical information at the end of the article.

- Endnotes should be used sparingly and be placed before the reference section.

- To the extent that our software allows, we will, however, accept other styles (e.g., APA or MLA) so long as the author is consistent and careful in following it. The main point, of course, is to give the reader enough information to locate and engage your sources.

- We do encourage one exception to this practice: Polanyi's major works may be cited parenthetically. For example: Polanyi argues that .... (TD, 56). Full bibliographical information should still be supplied in the references section since many of us may work with different editions of his works. If you take this option, please using the following abbreviations (note that abbreviations are italicized):
